

Educational facilities

The college has well-equipped classrooms. In addition, classrooms are equipped with data show equipment, a high-speed internet connection and a computerized class which support the learning system. The library collection includes books and paper Journals that cover all fields of knowledge; moreover, the library has an annual subscription to e-books and has the access to databases including electronic journals in full text, library subscriptions includes the following databases:

- 1.EBSCO Host
- 2.Science Direct

Field training

Field training is a collaboration between the College and the scientific departments and between Government and private sectors for training students from all disciplines of the College to practice their fields during the period of undergraduate study and training in a real work environment under specific controls and joint supervision of the College and the field cooperating course required in last level 3 before graduate for all undergraduate programs.

The accounting department provides other training programs that are available to assist education and skills development to today's labor markets.

The department plans at the beginning of each year and during the first and second semester to visit banks and other financial companies. Through Company Visits, students and teachers would have a better learn on these companies and this helps them in the field to gain practical skills.

Our Vision

Our vision is excellence in the quality of accounting education and scientific research to take up a high position at the regional and international level.

Our Mission

Providing excellent learning, teaching and research resources that enable scientific, professional and research knowledge for the preparation of distinguished graduates.

Our Goals

- 1.Demonstrate an understanding of both the theory and practical knowledge of accounting.
- 2.Improving student mental abilities, communication skills and dealing with others.
- 3.Improving Student Research Skills.
- 4.Preparing students to take and pass professional certifications.
- 5.Developing the students continuing education skills and local community services .
- 6.Qualify graduates that satisfy the needs of the labor market in accounting fields.

Job opportunities for graduates

- 1.Working in the accounting fields needed by financial institutions such as Banks, insurance companies, investment companies, and financial markets.
 - 2.Exercising accounting and auditing in accounting firms.
 - 3.Provide services relating to accounting auditing and taxation auditing.
 - 4.Working in statutory and taxation bodies.
- Working in the manufacturing industries that need accountants in its division

Philadelphia University

Faculty of Business

Department of Accounting

Contacting the University

Philadelphia University

Tel: 0096264799000

Fax: 0096264799040

University website: www.philadelphia.edu.jo

University-Liaison Office: Tell 962-6-5163649

Office of the Secretary: Tell 2428